US REDUCED RATES NOW APPLY TO DIVIDENDS OF NON-CORPORATE TAXPAYERS

Peter A. Glicklich and Abraham Leitner*

The Jobs and Growth Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2003 reduces the US federal income tax rate applicable to dividends of non-corporate taxpayers to 15 percent. This change has important ramifications for corporations and planners in the cross-border context.

KEYWORDS: DIVISIONS ■ RATES ■ REDUCTION ■ DEBT EQUITY